Dear Andrew,

I enjoyed talking with you today and hearing about how your business is growing. I thought that I would take this opportunity to thank you for the project management service that you provided at Sheraton on the Park hotel.

I recall that when we approached you to manage the redesign of our administration areas, you made some fairly bold statements about the level of service that you would provide. I wasn't disappointed and you lived up to your claims. I found you and your team to be extremely responsive even when we were less than certain about our requirements.

With the fitout work now complete, I am very pleased to say that the office is a far more pleasant and efficient place in which to work. All in all, I am delighted with the way that the whole project has come together and the part that you and your team played in this.

I am sure that Event Project Management will go from strength to strength and certainly look forward to working with you again. Please feel free to use this letter in promoting your business and I would also be happy to act as a verbal referee if this is ever needed.

Yours sincerely,

Pierre Langford
