RE: event Project Management

Andrew Graham and the team at event Project Management have been working with our school, Covenant Christian School, for just over 2 years. In that time they have demonstrated a great level of professionalism, expertise and a hands on personal approach.

Our DA has not been an easy exercise to navigate with the local Council and the cost has mounted due to requirements demanded of us by Council. At no time during this period have we felt that Andrew and his team were not honourable and looking after the schools best interests.

I recommend Andrew and the team at event Project management without hesitation.

Kind regards,

Andrew Lowry
Business Manager
