TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

EPM Projects is engaged by Ascham as our Project Manager for a large building project involving the expansion of student boarding and science facilities.

I have found EPM to be invaluable in developing strategy; liaising with authorities; managing the consultant team; tendering, appointing and managing the building contractor and administering the building contract.

EPM have kept me and my staff fully informed about every aspect of the project. Their communication is timely and expressed in terms that are easy to follow and understand which gives us great confidence.

I look forward to continuing our relationship with EPM and I would be very happy to be contacted by prospective clients of EPM to discuss our experience.

Yours sincerely

Andrew Powell
